

Richard Edward

Richard Edward Ltd is a lithographic colour printer specialising in all aspects of high quality commercial print solutions and manufacture of card based products for use in games, toys promotion and education.

Why Green Mark?

Green Mark proves Richard Edward's environmental commitment and responsibility to customers. In addition, it helps the company to measure environmental performance and provides a means for the continuous promotion of environmental awareness within the company.

As such, the award is also an effective marketing tool for promoting the company and gaining new contracts.
